These Standing Orders shall govern the conduct of the Council, the Senate and of their Major Committees and Sub-Committees as set out in Ordinance 10.

Unless the context otherwise requires, words, references and other expressions used in this Ordinance shall have the same meaning as they have in the Charter or the Statutes.

General Meetings of the Students' Union, and meetings of its Council and other Committees, shall operate under Standing Orders to be established under the Constitution of the Students' Union.

2. Establishment of Committees

- 2.1 A Committee shall be established by, or in accordance with, powers granted in the Charter, Statutes and Ordinances, or by Resolution of the Parent Committee, and shall have an ongoing rather than time-limited remit.
- 2.2 Unless otherwise specifically proscribed, each Committee shall have power to establish Sub-Committees, and may delegate any powers or functions within its remit.
- 2.3 Except where provided for by Ordinance, a Committee may by Resolution set or amend the Constitution of any of its Sub-Committees. All Sub-Committees shall be empowered to make representations and recommendations to their Parent Committees about their own Constitutions.

3. Membership of Committees

- 3.1 Unless otherwise specifically provided, the Chair of the Council and the President and Vice-Chancellor shall be ex officio members of all Major Committees of the Council and of all Joint Committees of the Council and the Senate. The President and Vice-Chancellor shall be an ex officio member of all Major Committees of the Senate.

3.2 Members of Committees

All members of Committees share the same responsibilities and obligations, regardless of the mechanism of their appointment. Members shall abide by the principle of collective decision making and avoid putting specific or personal interests before those of the institution.

- .1 A 'member' of a Committee shall be one appointed or elected in accordance with Statutes, Ordinances, Regulations or Resolutions as applicable.
- .2 An 'ex officio member' shall hold membership by virtue of office or appointment.
- .3 A 'co-opted member' shall be invited by the Committee to serve, under its powers of co-option, and shall be a full member of a Committee with speaking and voting rights.
- .4 A 'Committee Officer' shall be a member of staff routinely invited by the Chair to attend its meetings; such persons shall not be members or have powers of voting and can be required at any time to withdraw from the meeting by the Chair or by simple resolution of the Committee.

- .5 An 'Observer' shall be a person invited by the Chair to attend its meetings; such persons shall not be members of the Committee, or have power of speaking (except at the invitation of the Committee) or voting and can be required at any time to withdraw from the meeting by the Chair or by simple resolution of the Committee.

3.3 Terms of Office

- .1 An ex-officio member of the Committee shall be a member of the Committee so long as that member continues to hold the qualifying office or position.
 - .2 A Student member shall normally hold office for one year from 1 July. If the person ceases to be a Student during the term of office of that member, there shall be a casual vacancy.
 - .3 Any other member shall hold office for three years, unless the Committee determines a different period (up to a maximum of four years) or the member ceases to be qualified for membership in which case there shall be a casual vacancy.
 - .4 Subject to the provisions of the Charter and Statutes all periods of office shall begin, or be deemed to begin, on the first day of August of the calendar year of appointment. Members shall not normally be eligible to serve for more than two consecutive terms in the same capacity or for longer than a maximum of eight consecutive years, unless specified by Ordinance or by the Committee Constitution duly approved by the Parent Committee.
 - .5 When a Committee is first established the terms of service of the members shall be staggered to ensure rotation; this may be done either by lot or by varying the lengths of terms of service, or by other suitable means.
 - .6 All members are subject to the provisions for removing members set out in section 3.10 below, including ex-officio members.
- 3.4 A member may resign at any time: a resignation shall be in writing and shall be effective from the day after the next meeting of the Committee once notification is received by the Secretary of the Committee or later as agreed with the Chair.
- 3.5 Casual vacancies arise from the resignation, retirement or death of a member, or when a member ceases to be qualified for membership. Such vacancies shall be filled by the same method for appointing the member whose place has become vacant. The person appointed to fill the vacancy shall hold office for the unexpired term of office, or, should a casual vacancy arise shortly before the end of the term of office, the Committee may decide to allow the vacancy to continue until the term of office expires.
- 3.6 Unless proscribed otherwise at its establishment, each Committee shall have power to appoint co-opted members. The total number of co-opted members shall not exceed one quarter of the number of the other members.

- 3.7 Each Committee shall have power to invite persons who are not members of that Committee to attend its meetings as Observers.
- 3.8 The attendance of a substitute for a member of a Committee on an ad hoc basis shall be at the discretion of the Chair. Co-opted members may not send a substitute.
- 3.9 If an elected member undertakes a secondment during their term of office, which leaves them temporarily ineligible to continue in their appointment, they may nominate an individual to attend as a member in their place, with the agreement of the Chair, and with the need to ensure the nominee is eligible within the category of membership. Similarly, a member may suggest a nominee should they undertake a significant period of leave (e.g. parental leave).

3.10 Removal of a Member

- .1 A request may be made to the Chair of the Governance Committee to remove a member from membership for good cause in accordance with the procedure described below:
- (1) a request must be made by at least two members of the Committee, giving the grounds for removal;
 - (2) if the Chair of the Governance Committee decides that there is a prima facie case, a Panel will be set up, comprising three members of the Governance Committee (or of the Council in the case of a request to remove a member of the Governance Committee), one of whom will appointed as the Chair;
 - (3) the Panel will receive representations from the members lodging the request and from the member who is the subject of the request;
 - (4) the Panel shall make a recommendation to the Governance Committee (or to the Council in the case of a request to remove a member of the Governance Committee) on whether to accept or reject the request;
 - (5) the matter will be considered at a meeting under 'Reserved Business'.
- .2 Grounds for removal for good cause may include, but are not limited to, improper conduct, financial impropriety, breaches of confidentiality, failure to attend meetings. Advice should be sought from the University Secretary's Office on the application of this procedure.
- .3 Should the request to remove from membership relate to the Chair of the Governance Committee, the matter should be referred to the Chair of Council who would act in the capacity of the Chair.

4. Elected Members: Nominations, Elections and Ballots

Nominations

- 4.1 When a vacancy is due to occur or, in the case of a casual vacancy, when a vacancy has occurred, vacancies shall be advertised, and nominations invited. Every nomination must normally be received by noon on the date specified in the advertisement of nominations.

- 4.2 Nominations to fill vacancies on Committees shall be made to the Corporate Governance Team. Such nominations shall carry the name of the proposer and seconder and, where feasible, the agreement of the person nominated. All parties (including proposers and seconders) must be eligible to fulfil the role, being members of the relevant constituency. Individuals can act as proposer and seconder to multiple nominations if they remain eligible.
- 4.3 Where sufficient nominations to fill all vacancies have been received by the specified deadline, no further nominations shall be accepted thereafter. Nominations will be accepted for vacancies where insufficient nominations have been received after the closing date, up until the point where appointments are ratified.
- 4.4 If the number of nominations is equivalent to the number of vacancies the nominees shall be declared to be elected without further ballot.
- 4.5 If the number of nominations is greater than the number of vacancies, appointment shall be made by secret ballot.
- 4.6 If the number of nominations is less than the number of vacancies, those nominated shall be declared to be appointed without further ballot and further nominations shall be sought.

Elections and Ballots

- 4.7 Elections shall be by secret ballot and nominees will be provided with the opportunity to provide a personal statement for the ballot. Once the ballot is issued, personal statements cannot be amended, unless to correct a factual error.
- 4.8 Each person entitled to vote shall have as many votes as there are vacancies.
- 4.9 If the ballot remains tied at the closing date, it may be extended to allow for those who have not voted to do so. If the ballot remains tied after an extension, a new ballot may be called, or the Chair of the Committee may determine the successful candidate.
- 4.10 The vacancies shall be filled by the candidate(s) who have received more votes than the other candidates.
- 4.11 Ballot material and results shall be reviewed by an Independent Scrutineer and Returning Officer.
- 4.12 All appointments shall be ratified by the Chair of Council.

5. Lay Members: Appointments

- 5.1 When the vacancy is due to occur or, in the case of a casual vacancy, when a vacancy has occurred, vacancies shall normally be advertised, and applications or nominations invited.

6. The Chair

- 6.1 The Chair, or the method of appointment of the Chair, shall be defined in the Committee Constitution or by Ordinance. The term of office of a Chair (other than an ex officio Chair) shall be three years, normally starting on the first day of August in the calendar year of appointment. The Chair shall not normally be eligible to serve for more than two consecutive terms in the same capacity or for longer than a maximum of eight consecutive years. If an existing member of the Committee is appointed as the Chair during their term, the term of their appointment as Chair shall be in line with their original term of office as a member.
- 6.2 The Chair shall preside over the meeting or in their absence shall arrange for another member to act as Chair for all or part of the meeting.

- 7.2 In the absence of a quorum, a Committee shall not make any resolutions on the business of the meeting and the Chair shall decide whether to act on behalf of the Committee in relation to any matters requiring resolution, to reconvene the meeting or to refer such matters for resolution by the Parent Committee at its next meeting.
- 7.3 At least three clear working days' notice of the calling of the reconvened meeting shall be given.
- 7.4 If, during a meeting, the Committee becomes inquorate, Standing Order 7.2 shall apply from that moment. If it is identified after a meeting has been held that the Committee was either inquorate or became inquorate during the meeting, all Resolutions made when the Committee was inquorate shall be deemed null and void and Standing Order 7.2 shall apply.

8. Meetings and Notice of Meetings

- 8.1 Dates of meetings of the Senate, Council and other Committees shall be published in a calendar of meetings and shared with members, but such dates may be varied by resolution of the committee concerned. - 8.3 Major Committees and Sub-Committees of Council and Senate shall meet at sufficient times and appropriate points in the academic year to enable timely reporting of business to their Parent Committees.

- 8.5 Meetings of Committees specially arranged to deal with specific and/or restricted items of business shall be designated as Special Meetings.
- 8.6 Special Meetings may be called on the instructions of the Chair or at the request of not less than ten or one quarter of the members (whichever number is lower). Sufficient notice of the calling of Special Meetings shall be given to the Secretary (stating the business for which the Meeting is being called) to enable at least three clear working days' notice of the meeting and of its business to be given. The Secretary shall call the meeting to be held within four weeks of receipt of such notice.
- 8.7 Minutes and Reports of Special Meetings shall be submitted to the next meeting of the Committee and shall be subject to the procedure for Minutes and Reports of Sub-Committees as detailed in Standing Order 12.

9. Participation by video/telephone conferencing

- 9.1 Where necessary, and with the agreement of the Chair, a Committee meeting may be held by video/telephone conferencing (i.e. virtually) or by a combination of virtual and face to face format (i.e. hybrid) to enable members and presenters to participate in meetings. This may be for the whole meeting or just for specific items.

10. Order of Business

- 10.1 The order in which business shall be discussed at a meeting shall usually follow the order of the agenda and shall always include the ability:
 - .1 to read and approve as a correct record (or otherwise deal with) the Minutes of the previous Meeting of the Committee;
 - .2 to deal with matters arising from Minutes of the previous Meeting if not otherwise on the Agenda;
 - .3 to receive, read, consider and appropriately deal with Minutes, Reports, and Papers.
- 10.2 A request to vary the order of business shall be at the discretion of the Chair.

11. Confidential and Reserved Business

- 11.1 Committee members and those in attendance or receiving papers have a duty to maintain the confidentiality of any business to which they are party by virtue of their membership of, attendance at, or receipt of papers for the Committee.
- 11.2 On occasion due to the Highly Confidential, legally privileged and/or personal nature of matters to be discussed by the Committee, some items shall be determined by the Chair as Reserved Business. 11.4 All members of Council, as the governing body (including students and staff members), share the same legal responsibilities and obligations as other members, therefore no Council members shall be routinely excluded from discussions of Reserved Business.

11.5 In the case of other Committees the Chair may consider whether any Committee members should be asked to withdraw for the discussion of Reserved Business, depending on the nature of the information to be discussed. The Chair shall consider the principles of equality, diversity, accessibility, participation and fair outcomes for all in determining the need to exclude any members.

11.6 If the Committee is required to decide on Reserved Business from which some members have been excluded, the Chair shall ensure that the principle of integrity is met and that the values of transparency and accountability are upheld.

11.7 Reserved Business shall not be recorded in the Minutes in detail, but a record of any decisions taken shall be made in the full copy of the Minutes, insofar as possible without breaching confidentiality or prejudicing the safety or security of any person or asset. The Minutes shall record which members were asked to withdraw, if any, for the Reserved Business.

12. Minutes and Reports

12.1 It shall be the duty of the Secretary of a Committee to prepare the Minutes or Reports of that Committee. The Minutes shall be the authoritative record of the proceedings of the Committee and shall detail the Resolutions and decisions of that Committee.

12.2 The Minutes of each meeting shall be signed by the Chair once agreed by the Committee.

12.3 The Minutes, except for any confidential Minutes or File Copies, shall be made available in line with the Committee Minutes and Papers Publication Policy.

- .3 Minutes and Reports of Sub-Committees shall be presented to the Parent Committee by the Chair of the relevant Sub-Committee, or in the Chair's absence by any member of the Sub-Committee present, otherwise by the Chair of the Parent Committee.

13. Deputations

- 13.1 Deputations wishing to be received by a Committee shall submit a memorandum in writing to the Secretary of the Committee which shall be brought to the attention of the Chair. The Chair may permit the Committee to receive the Deputation, refer the memorandum to a Panel of not less than three members for detailed consideration and report, may require a Sub-Committee to receive the Deputation and to act on behalf of the Committee. In the case of a deputation to Council, Panel appointed must have a majority of lay (independent) members.
- 13.2 A Deputation shall not exceed three in number and, only one member thereof shall be at liberty to address the Committee (except in reply to questions from members of the Committee). The matter brought forward by the Deputation shall not be considered by the Committee until the Deputation has withdrawn.
- 13.3 The decision of the Committee shall be conveyed to the Deputation in writing by the Secretary of the Committee.

14. Items before the Meeting - Motions

- 14.1 A Motion may be put forward by a member of the Committee provided it is seconded by another member of the Committee and where the matter is within the Committee's powers.
- 14.2 Normally, notice of a Motion should be given to the Secretary prior to the meeting, with sufficient time to be listed on the Agenda, and circulated with the papers.
- 14.3 Any Motion put forward in the meeting and not seconded shall immediately lapse, and shall not be further discussed at that meeting.

15. Voting at meetings

- 15.1 An item shall be put to a vote either:
- .1 where this is specifically requested by a member; or
 - .2 where there is no clear consensus by the members on an item requiring a decision (including a Motion).
- 15.2 A simple majority of members of the Committee present shall be required to carry a vote, except where otherwise specified. Voting shall be by show of hands or any other method that enables the vote of each member to be visible to all present and prevents members voting more than once. A secret ballot may be held instead where this has been called for by an absolute majority of the members.
- 15.3 Members shall be deemed to have abstained from a vote if they neither vote for nor against a Motion or decision.
- 15.4 In the case of equality of votes the Chair shall have a second or casting vote, but shall not be obliged to exercise this casting vote. Where the Chair declines so to vote the Motion or decision shall be declared “not carried”.
- 15.5 When all members vote for a Motion or decision it shall be carried “unanimously”.
- 15.6 A Motion or decision carried by the votes of two-thirds or more of the members present shall be carried by an absolute majority.

17. Disorderly Conduct and Suspension of Sitting

- 17.1 If any member of the Committee persistently disregards the rulings of the Chair or behaves irregularly, improperly, offensively, or wilfully obstructs the business of the Committee, the member may be asked to leave the meeting by the Chair.
- 17.2 If the due and orderly dispatch of business is rendered impossible, the Chair, may decide to adjourn, or suspend the sitting of the Committee for such period as may be considered expedient.

18. Interest of Committee Members in Contracts and other Matters

18.1 Members will be asked to disclose at the beginning of each meeting any pecuniary or other interest, direct or indirect, in any of the Committee's business for the meeting. Members shall be asked to recuse themselves from the meeting for such items of business and this shall be recorded in the Minutes. A member of any Committee is not considered to have a pecuniary or personal interest in matters under discussion merely because they are a member of staff or student of the University.

18.2 Register of Interests

A Register of Interests of all members of Council, Audit and Risk Committee and the University Executive Board will be maintained by the Secretary to Council and will be made available publicly on the University website.

19. Delegation of Duties, and Powers and Functions
